OCCUPIED JERUSALEM, (PIC)-- Israeli premier Benjamin Netanyahu, in a clear response to the American reservations, on Monday said that construction of buildings in occupied Jerusalem would continue unabated.

He told a delegation of his parliamentary bloc, the Likud, that building in Jerusalem's western and eastern sectors would continue similar to the past 42 years.

He also asserted that freezing settlement building in the West Bank would end on the specified time.

Country: United States	Job:

According to the Zionist, the Settlement building will end once all of Judea and Samera are Settled. OH Yes, I almost forgot: There will be houses there for Abbas and the leaders of the PA since they were a great asset in settling the West Bank. All the other 5 million Palestinian will have to find their own housing in Jordan.
